

kids' health

→ Fly Safely Tired of hauling a bulky car seat on board? CARES (short for Child Aviation Restraint), a lightweight belt-and-buckle device that attaches to an airplane seat belt, has just been approved by the FAA for kids over 1 year who weigh between 22 and 44 pounds ($75; kidsflysafe.com).

